

Using your Main Entrance Pass

DISNEYLAND RESORT

+

-or-

READMISSION TICKET:
Use for re-entry or to visit multiple parks on the same day (with handstamp) and at Disney's FastPass locations.

Disney Employees* and Retirees:

Bring your Main Entrance Pass and Company-issued ID.

Spouses and Domestic Partners:

Bring your Spouse/Domestic Partner Pass and a valid government-issued photo ID.

1

Go to a Disneyland® Resort Theme Park main entrance and present your Main Entrance Pass along with your Company-issued ID at any turnstile. (Spouses and domestic partners must present their Spouse/Domestic Partner Pass along with a valid government-issued photo ID.)

2

Identify the number of Guests in your party. A readmission ticket for entry that day only (and re-entry, with valid handstamp) will be given to you and up to the number of Guests indicated on your pass.

3

To re-enter or visit multiple parks on the same day: Before leaving the park entered initially, everyone who is re-entering or visiting multiple parks on the same day must obtain a handstamp at the exit turnstiles. Then, present your readmission ticket(s) at the theme park main entrance turnstile. Your handstamp(s) will be checked, and Employees and Retirees must also present a Company-issued ID.

ADDITIONAL INFO

- Each day your Main Entrance Pass is used for Guest admission, or your Spouse/Domestic Partner Pass is used, counts once toward your total annual usage.
- Spouse/domestic partners may use their Spouse/Domestic Partner Pass to admit Guests into the parks with or without the presence of the Employee or Retiree.
- Spouses/domestic partners may not admit him/herself into an eligible Disney Theme Park after the Employee or Retiree has already entered the park with Guest(s).
- Eligible employees may self-admit him/herself into an eligible Disney Theme Park on the same day after the spouse/domestic partner enters with Guest(s).
- Reusable Walt Disney World® Guest Passes are neither needed nor accepted for entry at the Disneyland® Resort Theme Parks.

Main Entrance Passes are subject to Company designated block-out dates. Company designated block-out dates may change at any time, and Employees are responsible for checking updated information prior to their Disney Theme Park visit.
